1971

Lowell Trade and Vocational

Dedication

The 1971 edition of "The Key" is affectionately dedicated to Miss Lillian E. Chisholm, Head of the Clothing Department.

Through the years Miss Chisholm has been friend as well as teacher to the many girls who have been in her classes.

Her dedication to her students and her co-operation with the faculty will indeed be missed.

We the members of the class of 1971 feel very fortunate to have known her.

Our best wishes to Miss Chisholm for many years of good health, happiness and contentment in her retirement.

We will not forget her.

LILLIAN E. CHISHOLM

CHARLES P. CONLON
Director

With your graduation, you are being called upon to demonstrate to the world the good citizenship, good training and exceptional workmanship which have been cultivated in you as a student. May you ever be successful in all three.

KATHLEEN G. DELANEY
Girls' Principal

Sincere wishes for your success and happiness in your chosen field. How much success you achieve will depend on how well you use the training which you have received.

PROPHECY

It's now 1991. It has been twenty years since we graduated (we think) from Lowell Trade. A few things have changed such as; Walt Disney is the big thing at the movies, Hot Pants are hotter, C.C.R.'s Green River has a leak in it, and Spiro Agnew is selling pencils in front of the White House.

As for the class, Bob Sleeper is a professional ski bum, very high on a mountain. Dick Danis has invented a super $100 car. Larry Stuart is standing on the corner preaching Peace. Don Baribeault is a race driver at Rockingham. Lucille Archambault is doing anything her little heart desires. Pauline Boutin is working at Diane Rivard's beauty salon on the moon. Tina Picanso just opened a Beauty Salon next door to Diane's shop on the moon. Yvette Thibault decides to leave her mansion and take a trip to visit her classmates on the moon and is having a great time. Phil Willett owns a cabinet making shop in Thailand. George Hovey was recently seen opening a chain of playboy clubs. Rick Blanchette is a Wheeling and Dealing bachelor owning his own car dealership. Ed Campbell is running a ski shop with some friends. Lou Brunelle is an Admiral in the Navy. Jeannie Brunelle with her 10 little boys is starting a baseball team on the moon. Lou Brodeur is a skindiver for Rotor-Rooter. Marjorie Redding is still traveling around the world. Jim Goyette has his own business making peanuts. Ron Filteau refuses to say what he's doing on the grounds it may incriminate him. Ed Draper is married, fat, and unhappy. Jim Crowther is a science teacher at Lowell Trade. Russ Cook is a sports car driver for match box. Dave Silin is building a house on the border. Cathie Zielinski has a family and a nice home, Dan Tellier is retired with a new Cadillac. Dave Wallace is married and is the head of a large development. Mark Welcome has his own Business Installing Plugs. Janet Tropeano is married and raising a family. John Veiga is still putting his Tempest back together. Wayne Kasilowski is still trying to figure out why he went to Trade School. Bill Kasilowski is a millionaire machinist. Pat Wheeler is a Navy wife in Hawaii or Cape Cod. Pat Keough with her 10 little boys are starting their own little hockey team on Mars. Mike Recco is running a rest home for retired Vocational School Teachers. John Quinlan is a Franciscan Brother. Ray Perreault is a pool shark. Norm Mousseau is serving his last year in sing-sing. Ed Morgan was found at the ladies room at Salisbury Beach. Fred Matthews is alive and well in Switzerland with his 13 wives. Mushy Maslanka has his own chain of bar rooms. Joe McQuade is living comfortably on top of a mountain with his wife. James Lessard is owner of a package store. Den Lessard is the commander of the U.S.S. Murphy patrolling the waters outside Vietnam. Bob Leonard is going to the Moon. Flash, Don Lemire has invented the indestructable light bulb. Bill Shanahan is still hanging around. Roland Sicand is alive and well. John Hancock is still pumping gas at Bob's Shell. Don Genest is still doing nothing. Bruce Gauthier is doing fine on Welfare. Ron Lanier is a drummer at local bar. Gail Landry is cleaning house with 4 kids. Archie Lagasse is a retired builder. Bob Kelly is a fireman. Rick Juszczak still putting plugs and switches in apartments. Susan Jacques is a Go-Go Dancer. Dolores Higgins has a good job and a fat husband. Gerda Hansen is at home. Ed Zannoni owns stock in a package store. Roger Toupin owns a model train company. Dorothy Wozcik is married.
